Re: Sonterra Capital Master Fund, Ltd., et al v. Barclays Bank Plc et al.,
No. 15-CV-3538

Dear Judge Broderick:

This firm represents Defendant UBS AG (“UBS”) in the above-captioned litigation. We write jointly on behalf of UBS and Plaintiffs to respectfully request the Court’s approval of two proposed briefing schedules.

First, with respect to any motion by UBS or Plaintiffs for reconsideration or reargument of any aspect of this Court’s December 21, 2018 decision granting in part and denying in part Defendants’ motion to dismiss, see ECF No. 191 (“December 21 Order”), the motion would ordinarily be due January 4, 2019. See Local Civil Rule 6.3. UBS and Plaintiffs jointly request that this deadline be extended to January 22, 2019; that any opposition be due February 22, 2019; and that any reply be due March 8, 2019. This extension would allow the parties additional time in light of the Christmas and New Year’s holidays and the complexity of the issues presented. This is the parties’ first request to extend these deadlines.

Second, Plaintiffs contemplate making a motion to substitute under Fed. R. Civ. P. 17(a)(3). Your Honor has instructed that this anticipated motion is due January 21, 2019; any opposition is due February 20, 2019; and any reply is due February 27, 2019. See December 21 Order at 68. Plaintiffs request, and UBS does not oppose, an extension of the deadline for this motion to February 5, 2019; that any opposition be due March 5, 2019; and that any reply be due March 18, 2019. Plaintiffs’ position is that this extension is appropriate due to competing briefing schedules in this and other matters. This is the first request to extend these deadlines.

We have provided all of the above proposed deadlines to the other Defendants, and none have objected.

Respectfully,
